

Hazards on the Homefront

Come to a FREE training workshop for 4th-12th grade teachers!

Friday, October 10, 2003

8:00am - 4:00pm

Issaquah

Salmon Fish Hatchery

Real life environmental topics that teach science, reading and writing EALRs

- Learn about safer alternatives to hazardous household products and how to teach your students to improve their health, safety, and environment.
- Receive ready-to-use lesson plans that are easy to integrate into existing curriculum.

It was immediately useful! I received so many great ideas that I could implement in my classes the next day.

— High School Teacher

The materials in the class will enhance the curriculum that I already have in place. I will recommend this class to my fellow educators.

— Fourth Grade Teacher

This free workshop includes:

- Stipend for certified King County teachers on completion of workshop objectives
  - Free Hazards on the Homefront Teacher's Guide & Green Cleaning Kit
  - Refreshments
  - Clock hours (available for a fee)
  - Opportunities for free follow-up classroom assistance for projects
- Free resources are available for teachers who complete the workshop!

The pace was good, the presenters knew their subject and were enthusiastic and articulate. I hope more people will become aware of the hazards in our homes.
— Teacher

This was a great workshop—one that was well worth the time. The materials given to teachers are relevant and can be used even with modifications.
— High School Biology/Chemistry Teacher

Lots of helpful ideas, things I never thought of...the ways to make this relevant to kids. I was surprised how inexpensively these lessons can be done. I liked all the references.
